

STealth Mode

Crocodiles stalk their prey from the water. Lying with just eyes and nostrils above the water they remain hidden until the prey gets close enough to be seized in a lightning fast, deadly attack.

The powerful jaws crush the prey and the croc quickly pulls the unfortunate victim under the water until drowning occurs. For larger prey the croc throws it's jaws from side to side ripping off manageable chunks.

